Code of Conduct for the Children's Program of Living Stone Community Church

1. The Children's Programs of Livingstone Community Church are an opportunity for the children of our church to grow stronger in their Faith and closer to God. Behavior that is not respectful to other participants or to adults who are volunteering to work will not be tolerated. If your child exhibits unacceptable behavior while attending any Children's Program you may be called and asked to pick them up, and your child(ren) may be asked not to return.
2. Our Children's Programs are staffed by committed volunteers who are giving of their time for the children of the Church.
3. The Children's Programs are designed to be full of activities, games and a lot of fun! It is for that reason that other belongings such as video games, toys, hair supplies, etc., should be left at home. Living Stone Community Church is not responsible for items that are lost or stolen.
4. If your child owns a cell phone we request that they do not bring it with them. Your child will have access to a phone to call you if they need to, but they do not need to have a cell phone on their person.
5. If you are a parent who wishes to help with LSCC's Children's Programs, please be aware that we are promoting a Christian atmosphere to all the children we are serving. Proper words and actions when working with the children, or in the atmosphere of the children is expected.
